FORMER LEBANON JUNCTION POLICE OFFICER AND GIRL FRIEND CHARGED WITH TRAFFICKING IN OXYCONTIN PILLS

– Officer charged with conspiring to purchase Oxycontin for distribution to others

LOUISVILLE, KY - An Information was filed by the United States Attorney charging Daniel Carr, age 32, and Brenda Mudd, age 32, both of Mt. Washington, Kentucky, with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute Oxycontin pills, U.S. Attorney David L. Huber of the Western District of Kentucky announced today.

The Information charges that from on or about January 2007 to on or about June 25, 2007, Carr and Mudd conspired together and with others to knowingly and intentionally possess with the intent to distribute Oxycontin. Carr and Mudd are also charged with possessing Oxycontin on June 25, 2007, intending to distribute it to others. Further, Carr, a former Lebanon Junction police officer, is charged with being an unlawful user of a controlled substance in possession of a firearm, to wit, Carr's Glock 9mm service pistol. Carr was previously an officer with the Audubon Park Police force for approximately seven years.

The maximum potential penalties for Carr are not more than 50 years imprisonment, a $2,250,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of 3 years.

The maximum potential penalties for Mudd are not more than 40 years imprisonment, a $2,000,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of 3 years.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Robert J. Kilmartin and it was investigated by the Louisville Metro Police Department and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Carr and Mudd are scheduled to appear for arraignment/change of plea before the United States Magistrate Judge on August 21, 2007 at 9:15 a.m., in Louisville, Kentucky.
